SWAYNE'S COMPOUND SYRUP UF WILD CHERRY .- A PHYSICIAN'S TESTIMONY The following letters are presented with a view of more fully showing the opinions of Physicians in relation to the medical value of Dr. Swayne's

Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry:

Dr. Swayne—Dear Sir: Having used your Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry extensively in my practice, I was requested by your Agent, Dr. Crutcher, to express my opinion in writing of its properties as a remedial agent. I most cheer-fully comply, as I feel, by sc doing, I will discharge a debt I owe the community at large, and Physicians in particular. As much as I detest Quack Remedies and Patent Nostrums, I was induced, from a failure of the most potent expectorants, recommended in our materia medicas in some cases of Diseased Lungs, to try your preparation of Prunus Virginia or Wild Cherry. It is sufficient to say that I was so much pleased with the result of that, and subsequent trials, that I now prescribe it in preference to all other remedies wherean expectorant is indicated. In the much dreaded Pneumonia or Disease of the Lungs, in the alarming form in which it appears in Kentucky. I regard it as an invaluable remedy in the treatment of that disease. To all who know me I have said enough, but as this may be seen by persons out of the vicinity of Frankfort, I will briefly add, that I have been engaged m years, and am a Regular Graduate of Transylvania, and this is the first Patent Medicine I ever

[FOR THE ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE. ODE TO THE PAST. BY SARAH WHITTLESEY SMITH Down to oblivion's silent cell, Another year.

Of hope and fear. On Time's revolving wheels has flown :-Its broken chords o'er nature thrown, With low and melancholy moan. Its requiem sadly swell.

How many hopes that joyful hailed Its new-born day. Have passed away Upon its evanescent breath.

Memory from her lone bower saith. Many bright hopes have passed. How many eyes that sparkled gay-

Down thro' the shadowy vale of Death !

With love and joy, Without alloy-Upon its bright and budding dawn, Now at its close, are dimmed and gone!

In silence lone they slumber on,

Borne like the year, away Back thro' the shadowy Past's dim maze, How oft will roam. In days to come, Many lone hearts by memory stirred,

That sigh alone, unwept, unheard,

While tracing scenes to mind endeared-Sweet scenes of by-gone days. Oh dry thou up each falling tear -Let not the past.

A shadow cast Across thy brow, for joys departed, Nor darkly o'er them brood, lone-hearted For Grief's full fount when wildly started, Outlives each fleeting year.

'Tis gone! with all its smiles and tears-Past like a ray, Of light, away, Oh! may we learn from follies past, To shun the snares beneath us cast, That ... may live, and reign at last, Thro' never- mding Years!

[POR THE ALEXANDRIA GALSTTE. CALIFORNIA SONG. AIR : Carry me back to old Virginia Scraping for gold in the Sacramento. I worked from day to day; Raking among the beds of Ore, To me it was but play.

But now I'm rich with plenty of gold

I don't mean to work any more,

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Jan. 40, 1849

Then carry me back to Old Virginny To Old Virginny's shore. I'd never work for gold any more; Oh take me from Sacramento's plain,

To Old Virginny's shore. And now I have my pockets filled, With California's Ore, Oh carry me back to Old Virginny To old Virginny's shore. Oh now I'm rich and happy too, My wants are all supplied;

And when I'm dead and gone to reet Put the old tin Pan by my side; The Spade and Shovel accompany me, They were my only pride, Oh carry me back to Old Virginny To Old Virginny's shore.
